#1 was working at the "Cost-Cutter Haircuts" shop on #1 Milwaukee.

#1 went on to state that she met Edward PISCITELLO and Scott HEIMERMANN through #1 and #1 boyfriend, who she identified as Rick HEINETZ. She stated that she believes she met them in July, 1989.

#1 stated that Edward PISCITELLO and Scott HEIMERMANN would get cocaine for her and #1 and she states they would all "party" together. #1 stated that she did not have any type of relationship with Edward PISCITELLO or with Scott HEIMERMANN while they were in Wisconsin, but she stated that in Sep., 1989, after moving to Florida with Scott HEIMERMANN and Edward PISCITELLO, she did become intimate with Scott HEIMERMANN on a "few" occasions.

#1 stated that Edward PISCITELLO and Scott HEIMERMANN bought their cocaine from the "bad part of town," and to her knowledge, all of the purchases were made from a B/M known to #1 as "T.C." #1 described "T.C." as a B/M, early 20's, approximately 5'6", medium build, with a dark complexion. She also stated that "T.C." was always in the company of his "bodyguard," who she described as a B/M in his late teens to early 20's, 5'5"-6", heavy build and light-complected. #1 stated that "T.C." lived in a rundown apartment building in the "bad part of town" and she stated that this apartment building was approximately 4-5 blocks north of, and 5-6 blocks east of the 35th St. viaduct. She believed that "T.C." lived on the second floor of this apartment building.

#1 stated that in late July, she, along with Scott HEIMERMANN, Ed PISCITELLO, #1 and a friend of Scott named "Joe," went "up north" to "party." She indicated that this was the first time she had met "Joe."

#1 further stated that approximately 1-2 weeks later, sometime in early August, 1989, she, along with #1, Ed, Scott and Joe, went to the home at 941 S. 35th St. She stated that this was the home of Ed PISCITELLO's deceased aunt.

#1 stated that they arrived at the house at approximately 10PM, and that they went into the basement of the house so Ed, Scott and Joe could target-shoot. She related that they were shooting into a pillow and a small board which was set against the wall of the basement, she believes near the oil tank. #1 states she only saw 1 gun, which she believed belonged to Edward PISCITELLO. She described this gun as a large, black handgun. At this time, Det. VITALE demonstrated to #1 the placing of an ammunition magazine into a semi-automatic handgun and she stated that the gun she observed on the date in question did receive a magazine, as demonstrated by Det. VITALE, which would make the weapon she saw a semi-automatic.

#1 stated that she observed Scott HEIMERMANN fire into the pillow

first, and she thinks he then handed the gun to Joe, who also fired into the pillow. She stated that Ed called Scott and Joe his "sons," and referred to Scott HEIMERMANN as "Son Number 1" and to Joe as "Son Number 2." #1 states that it appeared Ed PISCITELLO was able to manipulate Scott and Joe. #1 states that she feared one of the bullets would ricochet while they were target-shooting, so she returned upstairs to the 2d floor with #1

#1 stated that she was also afraid the neighbors would hear the shooting and she believes Joe made a statement to the effect, "The basement is soundproof, you could kill somebody and nobody would hear."

#1 states that Scott, Ed and Joe fired more shots in the basement while she was upstairs; it felt "like the whole house was shaking."

#1 related that Ed, Scott and Joe then came upstairs to the 2d floor of the residence. Ed was "mad at T.C." because he "ripped him off on something or owed Ed money." #1 stated that Ed and Scott were talking about "getting T.C." and taking his "dope." She stated that they talked about "taking T.C. out," and Scott said they would have to "go through T.C.'s bodyguard and kill him too." She believes this was due to "T.C." making statements in the past, which #1 had heard, that his bodyguard would stop anybody from hurting him ("T.C."). #1 stated that from the conversation she overheard between Ed, Scott and Joe, she believed Scott was going to do the shooting. She also states that they made some statement to the effect that they would get them over to the house and "do it."

#1 stated that Ed PISCITELLO then called "T.C." and told him to come over with some cocaine. She states she believes it might have been around midnight, and "T.C." and his bodyguard came over to the house on 35th St., at which time, they were let into the residence by Scott HEIMERMANN. #1 states that she believes "T.C.'s" bodyguard may have been driving an auto but she is not sure of this and does not know what type of auto they may have been in. #1 recalled that they were all on the second floor of the residence and Ed suggested that they go into the basement. She states at this time, Ed, Scott and Joe, along with T.C. and T.C.'s bodyguard, all went into the basement of the residence, while she and #1 stayed upstairs. She states that the men stayed in the basement for approximately 20 minutes and she believes she heard 3-4 shots while they were down there. #1 advised that Ed, Scott and Joe then came back upstairs to the second floor, but that T.C. and his friend did not accompany them. She stated that she thinks T.C. left the residence and she believes she may have seen this. #1 stated that she did not go into the basement after this.

__ #1 stated that after Ed, Scott and Joe returned to the second floor, all of them "did some cocaine." She stated that she then left the residence with Joe, to go get some cigarets and while they were en route to the house, they stopped the auto and "did some more cocaine." #1 states she then returned to the house, with Joe, and drank and "partied." She estimates they remained there until 2AM or 3AM, at which time, she and #1 were given a ride home.

#1 states she does not believe she saw T.C. after this day. She indicated that approximately 1 week after this incident, she was with Ed and Scott and Ed was looking for T.C., making a "big deal out of it." She stated they went to T.C.'s drug house and a couple of taverns where Ed told people he was looking for T.C. She also related that when they went to T.C.'s drug house, she believes they bought cocaine, but she does not remember seeing T.C. at the drug house.

#1 explained that her relationship with #1 became strained after this incident, and she stated that this was due to Rick and #1 trying to get her (#1) become a "call girl." She stated that Rick kept telling her that she could make "a lot of good money" doing this. #1 also stated that she believed #1 was making sexual advances toward her, and she did pass this information on to Ed PISCITELLO who told her she could move in with himself and Scott on 35th St.

#1 also states Ed told her that she should quit her job and work for Ed and Scott, answering phones. #1 related that she did move into the home on 35th St., sometime in mid- or late-August, 1989, and she did in fact, answer phones for Ed and Scott in regards to their "real estate business." #1 indicated she would call real estate firms and banks regarding property listings, and she also stated that when she did answer the phones for incoming calls, she would answer, "Cappriccio and Piscitello Investments."

#1 stated that shortly after she moved into the home at 941 S. 35th St., a B/M came to the house, looking for T.C., because T.C. was missing. #1 stated she had a feeling something had happened between Scott, Ed and T.C., but she put it out of her mind.

#1 stated that she went home over the Labor Day weekend of 1989, to pick up some items, TV, VCR, stereo, etc., and she returned to the home after the Labor Day weekend with these items. She stated that within a few days, she, along with Ed PISCITELLO and Scott HEIMERMANN, then moved to Florida. She stated that upon their arrival in Florida, they stayed in a "Motel Six" for a period of time, and then moved to a residence in Lauderdale Lakes, Fla. She related that while she was in Florida, she did become intimate "a few times" with Scott HEIMERMANN, but that she spurned all advances from Edward PISCITELLO. She indicated that while in Florida, she also made phone calls regarding real estate for Ed and Scott, and did continue to use cocaine with them. #1 stated that she recalls Ed and Scott joking and "backslapping" and they would make statements to the effect, "I wonder how our friend, T.C., is doing." She stated they would then laugh about this and she felt it was some personal joke between the two of them.

#1 stated that in Nov., 1989, after living in Florida for approximately 2 months with Ed and Scott, she was "kicked out" of the residence by Ed and Scott. She stated that she then moved in with another person she had met in Florida, and moved to Miami.

#1 related that in Jan., 1990, she was arrested for Possession of Marijuana, which she stated consisted of a marijuana cigaret, and also for Possession of Cocaine, which she indicated was residue on a mirror. #1 stated she was placed in a "diversion" program due to her having had no prior arrests, and she has not used cocaine since her arrest. #1 added that she then returned to Wisconsin in Mar., 1990, and there, met her fiance, who also resided in Manitowoc.

#1 was asked to describe the house at 941 S. 35th St., and she stated that the house was a single-family residence in "terrible condition." She indicated that the entire house was filthy and there were water problems in the basement. She also stated that the woodwork in the home, around the windows and doors, had been stripped away, and that there was no furniture on the main floor of the residence. She also stated she had observed some cement bags on the main floor of the residence.

#1 went on to relate that they primarily stayed on the second floor of the residence, and that she did not go into the basement to do any laundry or anything of that nature, that she would go to a laundromat to do her laundry. #1 stated that the basement was also very dirty, and she believes there may have been water on the floor. She added that the basement was dimly-lit, and she does not recall there being any areas where sewer work may have been done, or where dirt may have been on the floor.

#1 was then shown an array of photos regarding persons named in this report and some who are not, and this display of photos met with the following results.

A photo of Edward PISCITELLO was shown to her and #1 stated she is positive this is the person she knew as Edward PISCITELLO.

She also identified the photo of Scott HEIMERMANN as being the person she knew as Scott HEIMERMANN, but she stated that he never used the name "HEIMERMANN," he always
